Chowan Junior College

MURFREESBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

FOREWORD

We wish to thank members of the Faculty and other friends for their assistance in publishing this, the first Annual of Chowan Junior College.

It has been our earnest effort in preparing this volume to reflect in it the life of our Alma Mater.

To the present students and friends—We trust that this volume will give a glimpse of the individual, comic and tragic experiences of college life, which too soon become memories that make college life more glorious. We hope that it will bring back the memories of bygone days, and increase your sympathy and usefulness for your Alma Mater.

Trusting that our college may shine with ever increasing brilliance in volumes of Chowan's yet unborn, we present to you this—

ALMA MATER

On the plains of Carolina
Neath her skies so blue
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Glorious to view.
With her classic walls and columns
Looks she proudly down,
Reared against the arch of heaven
With the stars for crown.

By Meherrin's rippling waters
Where the sunbeams play;
We, her loyal sons and daughters
Pledge our love for aye.
Praise to her! God grant His blessing
May he give rich store.
Chowan, we will ever cherish,
Love her ever more.
